Course Description

This course examines the field of education from a sociological perspective. The focus is mainly upon primary/secondary schools and post-secondary institutions in Canada, but studies of other educational domains and countries are included with the objective of enhancing the course. Attention is given both to the ways in which social structures and systems influence educational practices and outcomes, and to the ways in which educational experiences influence individuals and society.

Course Objectives

This course will provide the students with the opportunity to:

1. Examine the role education in their lives from a sociological perspective.
2. Grasp the complex relationships between educational institutions and students.
3. Explore different theoretical approaches to the field of education.
4. Develop an understanding of the ways in which the field of education influences individuals and societies.

Required Textbook

Wotherspoon, Terry. (2013). The Sociology of Education in Canada. Fourth Edition. Canada: Oxford University Press.

Evaluation

Assignments	20 %
First Midterm examination (Thursday, October 12)	20 %
Second Midterm examination (Thursday, November 16)	20 %
Final Project (Sunday, December 3)	30 %
Final Exam (Thursday, December 7)	10 %

Assignments are exercises designed to enhance the understanding of the topics discussed on class. They will not be accepted after their due dates unless a documented reason for not submitting them is provided (acceptable reasons: illness, family affliction, religious observance).

Both Midterms examinations and the Final Exam will consist of multiple choice questions. All of them are non-cumulative.

The Final Project will be a paper in which the students will present their research and analysis of the field of education in a country of their choosing. In teams of four persons, the students will gather information from different sources and, using concepts learned in the course, will write an analytical essay about the field of education selected by them.

Grade Reappraisal

Within two weeks of the date the exam/assignment is returned, students seeking reappraisal of examinations or assignments must submit a written response to the instructor explaining the basis for reconsideration of one's mark. The instructor will reconsider the grade assigned and will then book a time with the student to discuss his or her work and rationale. It should be noted that a re-assessed grade may be raised, lowered, or remain the same.

Ethics Research

Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Faculty Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Deferrals

When possible, please provide advance notice if you are unable to write an exam or complete/turn-in assignments on time. All requests for deferral of a course component due to health reasons must be accompanied by written documentation as outlined in the University Calendar and should be obtained while the student has the health issue rather than after recovery. Deferrals will be allowed in the following circumstances: illness, domestic affliction or religious conviction. Travel arrangements, misreading the syllabus, and scheduling conflicts with other classes or employment are not valid reasons for requesting a deferral. Deferrals will not be granted if it is determined that just cause is not shown by the student.

If you have missed a test for a legitimate reason, the instructor can require you to write a “make up” test as close in time to the original test as possible or can choose to transfer the percentage weight to another course component. If the instructor schedules a “make up” test for you, its date and location will be at the convenience of the Department of Sociology.

Deferred Final Exam Form: Please note that requests to defer a Registrar scheduled final exam are dealt with through the Registrar’s Office. Further information about deadlines, and where paperwork should be taken, is available on the form, which can be found at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/student-forms>

Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term also requires a form to be filled out. It’s available at
