Grade Reappraisal

Within two weeks of the date the test/assignment is returned, students seeking reappraisal of tests or assignments must submit a written response to the professor explaining the basis for reconsideration of one’s mark (why you believe an error in grading has been made). You should do so with the descriptions of grade ranges described above to justify your view of your performance. Please note that “needing to get into graduate school or law school” are not valid justifications for grade reappraisal and will be rejected. The instructor will reconsider the grade assigned and will then book a time with the student to discuss his or her work and rationale. I am more than willing to formally or informally review grades assigned and have no particular desire to give anyone a bad grade. It should be noted that a reconsidered mark may be raised, lowered, or remain the same. This policy pertains less to those courses in which the method of evaluation involves multiple choice testing.

Technology Use

Please note that the use of cell phones are to be avoided during lectures. Please be sure to mute your cell phone and use only in case of a family or related emergency. Please feel free to step outside class at any time to deal with a family or personal emergency. You will be asked to leave the classroom if you use technology other than for an approved purpose.
Research demonstrates that laptops interfere with teaching and learning. More importantly, laptops are a kind of “second-hand smoke” for others. They have a negative effect on those exposed to others who are using them and multitasking.

Here is a link to the research: https://3starlearningexperiences.wordpress.com/2018/01/09/laptops-in-class-are-the-new-second-hand-smoke/

Save yourself: turn off your wifi.

Using a pen and paper to take notes will increase your ability to understand and retain information from class lectures and improve your performance by a full letter grade over using a laptop. If at any time, you find that I am speaking too quickly, you don’t understand a point, please raise your hand and let me know. I’m happy to be asked to go more slowly, to go over main points/issues, and to discuss ideas as they come up in class. If you find yourself unable to keep up or parse out key ideas, there are plenty of note-taking skills resources available to you on campus as well as online. You have a positive obligation in this regard.

Email

Feel free to contact me over email at any time. Please put your course number and section in your email’s subject line, and include a proper salutation, your full name, student ID, and a proper closing in the body of your email. All emails violating customary email conventions will be ignored. All other emails will be answered within one to two business days. I do not answer emails over the weekend. Please take that into account when emailing me questions pertaining to assignments or exams. If you have a course-related question, please check the course outline first. Questions that can be answered by consulting the course outline will not be answered. Also, please make an effort to e-mail me for administrative purposes only, for example to set up an appointment. Please do not use e-mail as a replacement for an office visit, or asking questions either during or after lectures, if there is something you want to discuss. Questions about the course content and readings, concerns about grades, or any other personal issues, particularly those related to approved accommodations, must be dealt with in person during my office hours.

Emergency Evacuations
In the case of fire or other emergency evacuation of this classroom, please proceed to the assembly point at Energy, Environment and Experiential Learning (EEEL)

Handing in Papers, Assignments
1. The main Sociology Department office does not deal with any course-related matters. Please speak directly to your instructor.

2. Protection of Privacy: The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIPP) legislation does not allow students to retrieve any course material from public places. Anything that requires handing back will be returned directly during class or office hours. If students are unable to pick up their assignments from the instructor, they provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment.

3. Final grades are not posted by the Sociology Department. They are only available online.

Research Ethics
Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Faculty Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Absences and Deferrals
Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. Instructors may request that evidence in the form of documentation be provided. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test. For information on possible forms of documentation, including statutory declarations, please see https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html
