This course offers an introduction to the social organization of aging and the aging process. We will utilize various conceptual and theoretical tools to explore a number of important concepts fundamental to the sociology of aging. Throughout the course will examine demographic, economic, and social trends associated with aging with particular emphasis on Canadian society.

- Understand social relationships across the life course and the effect of transitions on individuals in the family, at work, in retirement and during their leisure time.
- Discuss and apply course material to personal life examples and experiences.

Course Format

This course will be delivered in an asynchronous format. By 8:00 am every Monday I will post the week's lecture onto D2L in the "Content" section. that students will log in to D2L every Monday to check these News Announcements and access the material for the week. We will also be utilizing the discussion boards in D2L. I will open a discussion board each Monday for you to discuss the week's content amongst each other. These discussions are not part of your grade; however, they can be a valuable asset to your understanding of the course material. NOTE: It is expected that you will log in and check your University email and D2L News Announcements multiple times throughout the week.

These assignments will help us reflect more deeply on readings and lectures in this course. There will be a total of 6 assignments and the 4 highest scores will be included in the calculation of your final grade (4 x 2.5% = 10%). I will not accept any late submissions once the Dropbox is closed or submissions via email. These assignments will be available for the week we are covering the content (Monday at 8:00 am – Sunday at 11:59 pm). Refer to the handout titled “Reflection Assignments Winter 2023 SOCI373” posted in D2L for more details and due dates.

Exams

Exams may include some or a combination of: multiple choice, true/false, and short answer questions and will be conducted online through the D2L “Quizzes” menu. You will be accountable for all materials that are assigned, regardless of whether they are covered in lecture slides. As well, you will be accountable for information covered in lecture slides that is not covered in the readings. All exams will be available for 24 hours. Exam 1 will be available starting at 9:00 am February 6 and will end at 9:00 am February 7. Exam 2 will be available starting at 9:00 am March 13 and will end at 9:00 am March 14. a time between April 15 – April 26. Both Exam 2 and the Final exam will not be cumulative. Normally these exams would be 60 minutes, but an additional 50% time will be allowed to help with any technical issues that may arise. Therefore, students will have 90 minutes to complete the exams once they begin. I will be available via email from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm during each testing window if assistance is needed.

Missed or Late Assignments

Since our Reflection Assignments are available for the duration of the week and the two lowest assignment grades are dropped, missed or late assignments will not be accepted or granted extensions for any reason.

Absence from a Midterm Examination

If at all possible, students must provide advance notice to the instructor if they are unable complete exams. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, the instructor may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments.

The form is available at: https://live-ucalgary.ucalgary.ca/sites/default/files/teams/14/P22_deferral-of-term-work_lapseGrade.pdf
