Instructor Email Policy
Feel free to contact me over email at any time. Please put your course number and section in your email’s subject line, and include a proper salutation, your full name, student ID, and a proper closing in the body of your email. I do not answer emails over the weekend. Please take that into account when emailing me questions pertaining to assignments or exams. If you have a course-related question, please check the course outline first. Also, please e-mail me for administrative purposes only, for example to set up an appointment. Please do not use e-mail as a replacement for an office visit, if there is something you want to discuss. Questions about the course content and readings, concerns about grades, or any other personal issues should be dealt with in person during my office hours.

Course Description
This is a graduate course that focuses on Indigenous issues in Canada. The Indigenous world is complex but many feel free to give simple answers. We will discuss issues from both the historical and the contemporary perspectives. You will learn about the colonial relationship between Indigenous people and settler society and its impact on contemporary life. We will cover six main themes including: Social, Political, Economic, Legal, Women, and the Arts. In the course we will separate fact from opinion and reality from myth.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes
1. To examine the colonization of Indigenous peoples and its impact on historical and contemporary life.
2. To provide a demographic overview of the Indigenous community in Canada and how it differs from mainstream Canadian society.
3. To provide an overview of the social, legal and political position of the Indigenous community from both a historical and a contemporary standpoint.
4. To explore the race-based policies and legislation that apply only to First Nations people.
5. To familiarize students with various aspects of Indigenous peoples’ resistance to colonial rule.
6. To gain knowledge of benchmark Indigenous and Treaty Rights cases in Canada and other significant events impacting Indigenous peoples.
7. To separate fact from myth regarding Indigenous people in social, economic, political and legal
8. To discuss and remain aware of various Indigenous issues that may arise from time to time during the term

Required Textbooks, Readings, Materials, Electronic Resources

Methods of Assessment and Grading Weights

Term Paper Proposal  10%

Students will write a term paper proposal on an Indigenous issue and will submit it for approval. The proposal will introduce the issue, provide a brief literature review, provide argumentation on why this issue must be addressed. Due Date: October 11 (in class)

Article Reviews  20%  (5% for each assignment)

Students will present 4 article/book chapter reviews throughout the term. Students will write a two-page written review to accompany the presentation and discussion of the article/book chapter to the class. Due Date: Assigned throughout term

Presentation  30%

Students must make a presentation in class. The presentation will be based on a historical or contemporary issue. The issue can be historical (Indian Act or other policies) or contemporary (Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women) and should be approximately 45 minutes long. The presentation must deal with the genesis, the argumentation, the outcome or expected outcomes, and the potential implications. You are expected to provide supplementary materials (outlines, analysis, video clips, etc.) to fellow students and then to lead a class discussion. Students are also encouraged to complement their presentation with additional materials such as photographs, illustrations, maps, flowcharts, music, quizzes, etc. Be creative! Presentations begin on November 1

Peer Review Assignment  10%

Students must read two papers from fellow students and give constructive feedback. The author will use this feedback to strengthen their paper before it is handed in to me for a final grade. Due Date: November 29 (in class)

Term Paper  30%

The student must write a 30-page term paper based on the proposal Submission Date: December 13 (submit via Dropbox by 12:00 pm)
Final Exam Information
There is no Final Exam in this course.

Passing Grades
Students must obtain a grade for all components of this course to receive a passing grade.

Technology Use
Please use laptop computer for notetaking only. Ensure that cellphones are turned off during class. You will have a break during the class.

Students May Audio or Video Recorded
Students cannot audio record or video record the lectures.

Libraries & Cultural Resources
To contact your librarian or find out about the resources and services available to sociology students go to the Sociology Library guide: https://library.ucalgary.ca/guides/sociology

To access the main Library website, go to: https://library.ucalgary.ca

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Absence From a Mid-term Examination
Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of that email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor.
Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term requires a form to be filled out by the student and submitted, along with any supporting documentation, to the instructor. The form is available at: https://live-ucalgary.ucalgary.ca/sites/default/files/teams/14/P22_deferral-of-term-work_lapseGrade.pdf

Once an extension date has been agreed between instructor and student, the instructor will email the form to the Faculty of Arts Program Information Centre (ascarts@ucalgary.ca) for approval by the Associate Dean.

Deferral of a Final Examination
Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams.

Reappraisal of Grades:
For Reappraisal of Graded Term Work, see Calendar I.2
http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-2.html

For Reappraisal of Final Grade, see Calendar I.3
http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-3.html

Academic Misconduct:
Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior that compromises proper assessment of students’ academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor’s expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar.

Student committing academic misconduct during the final exam will not receive a passing grade for the course.

For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy, Procedure and Academic Integrity, please visit: https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct
Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Recording of Lectures:
Recording of lectures is prohibited, except for audio recordings authorized as an accommodation by SAS or an audio recording for individual private study and only with the written permission of the instructor. Any unauthorized electronic or mechanical recording of lectures, their transcription, copying, or distribution, constitutes academic misconduct. See https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-6.html.

Academic Accommodations:
Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/accommodation-students-disabilities-procedure

Research Ethics
Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Conjoint Faculties Research Ethics Board. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subject research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Instructor Intellectual Property
Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act:
Personal information is collected in accordance with FOIP. Assignments can only be returned to the student and will be accessible only to authorized faculty and staff. For more information, see https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/access-information-privacy

Copyright Legislation:
See the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright at https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/acceptable-use-material-protected-copyright-policy Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Evacuation Assembly Points
In the event of an emergency evacuation from class, students are required to gather in designated assembly points. Please check the list found at https://www.ucalgary.ca/risk/emergency-management/evac-drills-assembly-points/assembly-points and note the assembly point nearest to your classroom.
