Course Description:
This is a graduate course that focuses on Indigenous issues in Canada. The Indigenous world is complex but many feel free to give simple answers. We will discuss issues from both the historical and the contemporary perspectives. You will learn about the colonial relationship between Indigenous people and settler society and its impact on contemporary life. We will cover six main themes including: Social, Political, Economic, Legal, Women, and the Arts. In the course we will separate fact from opinion and reality from myth.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes

1. To examine the colonization of Indigenous peoples and its impact on historical and contemporary life.
2. To provide a demographic overview of the Indigenous community in Canada and how it differs from mainstream Canadian society.
3. Provide an overview of the social, legal and political position of the Indigenous community from both an historical and a contemporary standpoint.
4. To explore the race-based policies and legislation that apply only to First Nations people.
5. To familiarize students with various aspects of Indigenous peoples’ resistance to colonial rule.
6. To gain knowledge of benchmark Indigenous and Treaty Rights cases in Canada and other significant events impacting Indigenous peoples.
7. To separate fact from myth regarding Indigenous people in social, economic, political and legal realms.
8. To discuss and remain aware of various Indigenous issues that may arise from time to time during the term.

Required Textbooks, Readings, Materials, Electronic Resources

- Miller, J.R. Residential Schools and Reconciliation: Canada Confronts its History. Toronto: University of Toronto Press. Required
- Saul, John Ralston. The Comeback: How Aboriginals are Reclaiming Power and Influence. Recommended
- Various articles and book chapters will be available via copyrighted links on D2L. I have copies of the recommended books that can be placed on reserve.

Presentation

Students must make a presentation in class. The presentation will be based on a historical or contemporary issue. The issue can be historical (Indian Act or other policies) or contemporary (Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women) and should be approximately 45 minutes long. The presentation must deal with the genesis, the argumentation, the outcome or expected outcomes, and the potential implications. You are expected to provide supplementary materials (outlines, analysis, video clips, etc.) to fellow students and then to lead a class discussion. Students are also encouraged to complement their presentation with additional materials such as photographs, illustrations, maps, flowcharts, music, quizzes, etc. Be creative!

Article Reviews

Students will present 4 article/book chapter reviews throughout the term. Students will write a two-page written review to accompany the presentation and discussion of the article/book chapter to the class.

Term Paper Proposal

5%

Students will write a term paper proposal on an Indigenous issue and will submit it for approval. The proposal will introduce the issue, provide a brief literature review provide argumentation on how why this issue must be addressed.

Peer Review Assignment.

10%

Students must read two papers from fellow students and give constructive feedback. The author will use this feedback to strengthen their paper before it is handed in to me for a final grade.

Term Paper

40%

The student must write a 40-page term paper based on the proposal.

Passing Grades

Students must obtain a grade in all the components of this course to receive a passing grade.

Grade Reappraisal

Within two weeks of the date the exam/assignment is returned, students seeking reappraisal of examinations or assignments must submit a written response to the instructor explaining the basis for reconsideration of one’s mark. The instructor will reconsider the grade assigned and will then book a time with the student to discuss his or her work and rationale. It should be noted that a re-assessed grade may be raised, lowered, or remain the same.

Technology Use

Please use laptop computer for notetaking only. Ensure that cellphones are turned off during class. You will have a break during the class.

Handing in Papers, Assignments

1. The main Sociology Department office does not deal with any course-related matters. Please speak directly to your instructor.

2. Protection of Privacy: The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIPP) legislation does not allow students to retrieve any course material from public places. Anything that requires handing back will be returned directly during class or office hours. If students are unable to pick up their assignments from the instructor, they can provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.

3. Final grades are not posted by the Sociology Department. They are only available online.

Research Ethics
Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Faculty Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Copyright Legislation
All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the Copyright Act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorized sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Instructor Intellectual Property
Course materials created by professor(s) (including course outlines, presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the professor(s). These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the professor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Academic Misconduct
Please refer to the website listed below for information on University of Calgary policies on Plagiarism/Cheating/Other Academic Misconduct:
http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html

Absences and Deferrals
Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. Instructors may request that evidence in the form of documentation be provided. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test. For information on possible forms of documentation, including statutory declarations, please see https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html

Deferred Final Exam Form: Please note that requests to defer a Registrar scheduled final exam are dealt with through the Registrar’s Office. Further information can be found at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams

Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term also requires a form to be filled out. It’s available at: https://live-ucalgary.ucalgary.ca/sites/default/files/teams/1/deferred_termwork15_0.pdf

Once an extension date has been agreed between instructor and student, the form should be taken to the Faculty of Arts Program Information Centre (SS 110) for approval by an Associate Dean (Students).

Academic Accommodation

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at: http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf

Students needing an Accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the course instructor.

Wellness and Mental Health Resources

The University of Calgary recognizes the pivotal role that mental health plays in physical health, social connectedness and academic success, and aspires to create a caring and supportive campus community where individuals can freely talk about mental health and receive support when needed. We encourage you to explore the excellent mental health resources available throughout the university community, such as counselling, self-help resources, peer support or skills-building available through Student Wellness Services (Room 370 MacEwan Student Centre, https://www.ucalgary.ca/wellness-services/services/mental-health-services) and the Campus Mental Health Strategy (http://www.ucalgary.ca/mentalhealth/).

Student Success Centre

The Student Success Centre provides services and programs to ensure students can make the most of their time at the University of Calgary. Our advisors, learning support staff, and writing support staff assist students in enhancing their skills and achieving their academic goals. They provide tailored learning support and advising programs, as well as one-on-one services, free of charge to all undergraduate and graduate students.
